Rose, Marzipan and Mint

A bright and elegant Ceylon Western Pekoe from the Dimbula Valley, our tea of the month is the Rose, Marzipan and Mint Tea. This Christmas cuppa offers a fragrant fusion of Rose, Marzipan and Mint in celebration of the joyful season, this December. While the sensuous Rose offers a floral note, the nutty Marzipan and zesty Mint complete the festive tea.

This handpicked Ceylon Single Region

tea gently complements the trio of flavours in a softy spirited and energetic beverage. Unsweetened, the tea pairs well with nuts such as almonds, hazelnuts and pistachios, and with dried cranberries and plums. Once sweetened with honey, it is perfect served warm or chilled paired with ginger biscuits, Christmas pudding, rich cake and ham and turkey.

Making Business A Matter Of Human Service

The Ethical Tea Society (ETS) concept is an idea which directly addresses Dilmah Founder Merrill J. Fernando's vision of making business a matter of human service. It was established as recognition of the importance of sharing one small but important aspect of the work of the MJF Charitable Foundation and Dilmah Conservation; that is the deep sense of fulfillment that is an indirect benefit of the process of changing lives.

The broader objective of the Society is to harness the enormous goodwill and creativity of the global Dilmah family of partners and their networks of consumers and well-wishers to benefit the underprivileged and the environment. The Society and its global membership are able to influence and enhance the effectiveness of MJF Foundation and Dilmah Conservation programmes by sharing ideas, or offering support in strengthening or extending existing programmes on humanitarian assistance or environmental protection.
